

FELA Reporter

and Railroad Liability Monitor

The Independent Monthly News Journal of Railroad Litigation From the Publisher of RAILAW, The National Database of Railroad Liability Cases

Vol. 19, No. 4

April, 2006

HIGHLIGHTS

Section 1: Current Developments

- Documents Destroyed After Union Pacific Claims Agent Fails to Collect Them — Colorado Supreme Court Finds Adverse Inference Instruction Was Not Abuse of Discretion Notwithstanding Railroad's Concession of Negligence — Action of Intermediate Appeals Court Regarding $6 Million Verdict Reversed, p. 3
- Interstate Commerce Commission Termination Act Does Not Preempt State Jurisdiction Over Grade Crossings Rules North Dakota Supreme Court, p. 4
- Report From Air Pollution Regulators Says Railroad and Marine Diesel Emissions Contribute to 4,400 Deaths Per Year — Ninety Percent Reduction in Nitrous Oxide and Particulate Matter Pollution Sought, p. 5
- FRA Fines CSX $227,000 for Failure of New York Grade Crossing Warning System Where Death Resulted, p. 6
- Amendment to Reauthorization of Transportation Security Administration Requiring Pre-Notification to Communities of Hazardous Material Transportation Survives Sub-Committee Mark-Up Vote, p. 6

Section 2: FELA Appellate Cases

- Mesothelioma Requires Removal of Lung and Stomach — $7.5 Million North Carolina Jury Verdict Affirmed — Appeals Court Finds No Error in Admission of Expert Testimony, 6
- Union Pacific Points to 1995 Disability Claim as Support for Grant of Summary Judgment on Statute of Limitation Grounds Regarding 2002 Suit — Utah Appeals Court Says Question of Plaintiff's Diligence Must Be Resolved by Fact-Finder — Grant of Summary Judgment to Defense Reversed, p. 7
- Union Pacific Manager of Terminal Operations Blames Neck, Knee and Back Injuries on Ride on Locomotive He Had Reported as Defective — Idaho Federal Court Denies Railroad's Motion for Summary Judgment — Finds Claim Against Manufacturer Pre-Empted — Railroad's Counterclaim Will Be Heard By Jury — "Wide Latitude" To Be Accorded Railroad Regarding Evidence of Circumstances Surrounding Termination, p. 8

Section 3: FELA Verdicts and Settlements

- Southern Pacific Engineer Claims Disability Due to Three Collisions — $3.7 Million Settlement Concluded Six Years After $2.377 Million California Verdict, p. 10

Highlights continue on page 3